8. [redacted] Called on Senator Milton Young and briefed him on developments over recent weeks regarding Soviet weapons, Sino-Soviet relations and the Middle East.

9. [redacted] In response to his earlier request, delivered to Russ Blandford, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, figures extracted from National Estimates over the past three years projecting the Soviet ICBM deployment.

I explained to Blandford that, as a result of an agreement designed to avoid unnecessary duplication, the Agency concentrated on following arms shipments within the Communist Bloc, and DIA assumed responsibility for covering arms shipments throughout the free world. I therefore said that DIA was in a better position to answer his request for a roundup on free world arms traffic. This seemed to satisfy him.
